Experiences

THE NEW YORK TIMES

June 2024–August 2024

Graphics Intern

- Created data visualizations and webpages for the Times' coverage of the French elections, the U.S. presidential election, and the NYT/Siena College Poll with d3, Illustrator, and Svelte
- Contributed to the Times' election results database through building a data pipeline which transformed election data received via XML feeds into structured JSON files
- Designed mobile-friendly assets for NYTG projects, posted on various NYT social media accounts

THE PUDDING

June 2024–August 2024

Member, Pudding 2024 Cohort

- Was 1 of 3 fellows selected for the inaugural summer fellowship after pitching a data-driven story idea on advanced baseball analytics
- Collaborated with members of the Pudding team to construct a visual storytelling experience

THE TEXAS TRIBUNE

January–May 2024

Data Visuals Fellow

- Used BeautifulSoup and Playwright to scrape primary election data from the Texas Secretary of State's data portal
- Created data graphics as part of the Data Visuals team at the Texas Tribune using tools such as Illustrator, Javascript (d3, React), and Datawrapper

COLUMBIA DAILY SPECTATOR

December 2020–December 2023

147th Managing Editor/Vice President

- Led all journalism efforts over the 2023 calendar year, editing and overseeing the production of over 1,000 articles
- Served as Vice President of Spectator Publishing Company (a fully student-led 501(c)(3) nonprofit), organizing a 150-person awards gala, managing alumni and student relations, and ensuring the upholding of appropriate ethical standards within the newsroom

Graphics Editor

- Oversaw all projects of Spectator's award-winning Graphics team in 2022, leading the production of data-driven/visual storytelling experiences
- Led the data reporting and visualization for stories on housing gentrification in West Harlem, CCRB complaints alleged against NYPD officers, and gender inequities in funding of Columbia University's athletic teams

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE

June–August 2023

Digital Design Intern

- Created and updated React components used by the newsroom in visual longform projects, optimizing for performance and cross-compatibility
- Contributed data visualization work for the Chronicle's enterprise coverage on Bay Area flooding with Datawrapper, RAWGraphs, and Illustrator
